PRESS RELEASE

Monuments Inscriptions Team Completes It's Second Book

On Sunday 13th December 1987 the second finished work of monumental inscriptions produced by NACRO's Calderdale Monuments Inscriptions team will be presented to Reverend Forbes of All Saints Church, Salterhebble, Halifax. The presentation of the book of inscriptions entitled 'In Spirit and in Stone - The Graveyard', will be made by Christine Barker, Supervisor of NACRO's Halifax Community Programme Scheme at the 10.30 a.m. Sunday Service. Members of the press wishing to attend should contact NACRO so that appropriate arrangements can be made beforehand.

Calderdale Monuments Inscriptions is part of NACRO Halifax Community Programme Scheme which provides temporary employment and training for long term unemployed people, including ex-offenders, on work of benefit to the community. It is managed by the National Association for the Care and Resettlement of Offenders (NACRO) and funded by Manpower Services Commission (M.S.C.)

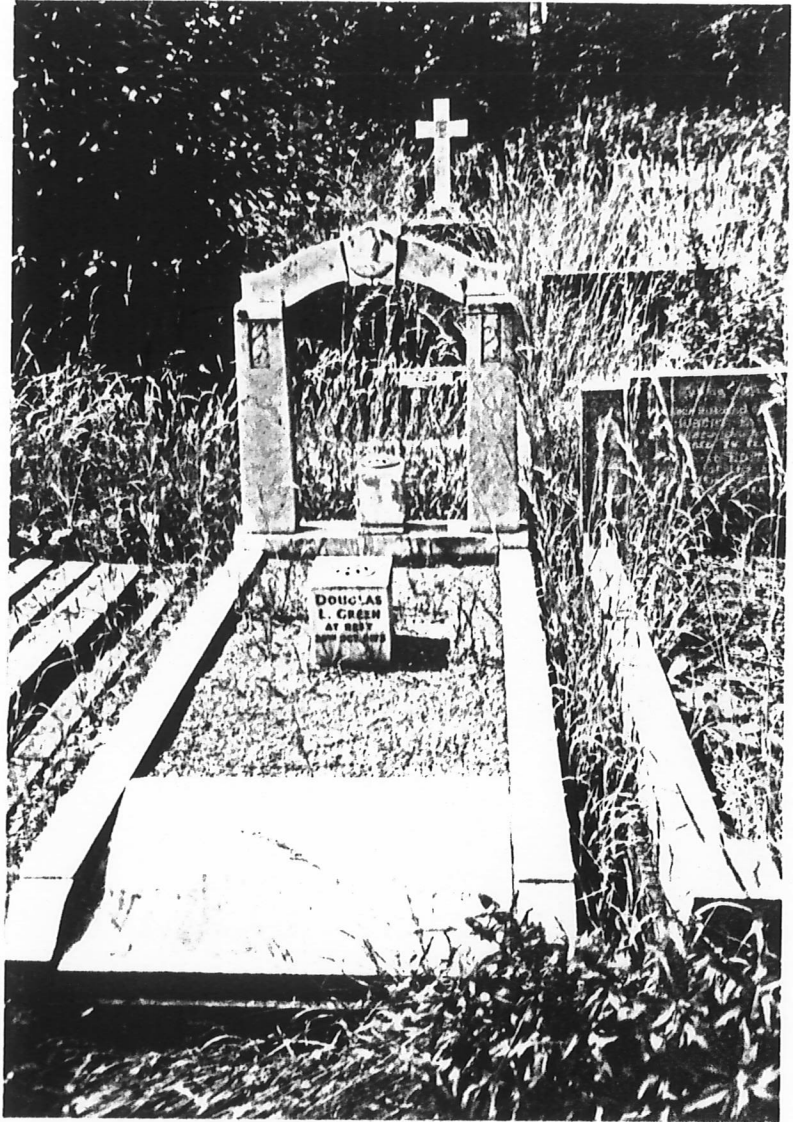

Since May 1986 C.M.I have been engaged in the work of recording tombstone inscriptions in graveyards throughout the Calderdale area and to date 11 graveyards have been completed by the field staff. Their work consists of cleaning weeds from around the gravestones and then recording every detail of the inscriptions. This work is then processed on computer at the NACRO offices in Brighouse and produced as a hard bound volume. The first book of inscriptions entitled 'The Book of Remembrance - Southowram Methodist Church' was published in January.

Richard Evans, Manager of NACRO Halifax Community Programme Scheme, said this week "Many people are interested in the project and see it as an invaluable asset to the community. Copies of the books go to various organisations including the Archives Services at Halifax Library the Calderdale Family History Society, the Halifax Antiquarian Society and the Society of Genealogists. Recently the Genealogical Society of Utah has shown an interest in our work and as well as purchasing copies of the books they wish to microfilm them and deposit the information in their libraries around the world!"

Christine Barker, Supervisor of the C.M.I. team, said, "The eventual aim of the project is to make a complete record of the graveyards in Calderdale, this will take years of patience and hard work, but with continued support of M.S.C. we hope to make it a reality".

For further information please contact Richard Evans or Christine Barker on Brighouse (0484) 722134.
